

Our Mission:

"To know Christ and to make Him known"

Christ's Messenger

From the Pastor's Mail Pouch

So, do we really know what's going to happen... on the Last Day? by P. M.

"Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear His voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment."

John 5:28-29 ESV

After a six week series of Lenten sermons on the godly attitude of "contentment", I sincerely hope and pray that you and I are not content with the things that this world has to offer. For, if we are, then we will not "long for" the eternal blessings that are waiting for those whose hope is in Christ Jesus - the crucified, risen, living and soon coming Savior and Lord.

The Christian Faith is based on the certain Truth of God's Word, which God Himself inspired men to write ... so that we might know the truth which is able to set us free. The freedom which is referred to by Jesus (John 8) includes not only freedom from the power and dominion of sin and its ultimate curse, death; the freedom that sets us free in Christ's Gospel also includes freedom from the 'fear' of death, and freedom from a hopeless existence.

Easter - is the celebration of Christ's triumph over sin's curse (death) and the replacement of that curse with fullness of LIFE with God which has no end. Anything short of this joyous experience is to miss the point of Easter! Set aside the brightly colored eggs and jelly beans, the ham and hot-cross buns, the Easter egg hunts and hidden Easter baskets. But never set aside the celebration of His Resurrection .... lest we fail to celebrate and teach our children and grandchildren to celebrate the eternal truth of God's provision for our resurrection of the dead and eternal life with Him. "Because I live, you shall live also."

The events of Good Friday and Easter ought to be and need to be foremost truths in the lives of church-goers. It is certainly the case with true believers in Christ. You and I can know and, [by God's gracious Spirit working in our hearts through the Word of God] we can believe that when Christ returns to judge the living and the dead there will be a resurrection of everyone who has ever lived on this earth. And, according to the words of Christ Himself [whom the Father has appointed to judge the living and the dead], there will be two distinct and very different experiences for these people: a resurrection to life with God or a resurrection to judgment and hell apart from God.

In His love for a lost creation, Christ came to earth, lived a perfect life, offered it up as a substitutionary sacrifice on our behalf to atone for our sin and to cancel sin's debt ["for the wages of sin is death." Romans 6:23], and restore us to a right relationship with God. Those who hear God's Word ... and continue to hear it ... will receive and believe two eternal truths: that they are sinners deserving of eternal death in hell's flames, and that in God's infinite mercy He has provided salvation for them through a living faith in Jesus His Son.

Those who 'have done good' are those whom God has come to live with and endowed them with His divine power both to believe in Him and do what is good and God-pleasing. They are people of faith in God and hope in Him. On the other hand, those who continue to 'do evil' are the people who have refused to recognize their need for Christ and have ignored His leading and lordship in their lives, even if they have heard the message of the Gospel.

You can know what will happen to you ..... on the Last Day ..... because of what Christ did for you on the cross and what occurred on the Sunday morning that followed, when the tomb was empty and He was alive. Jesus has made provision for you to experience a resurrection unto eternal life with Him. You need not fear that Day.

Jesus declares, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die." (John 11:25-26)

"For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day." (John 6:40) God's will be done in us!

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the families of those who have recently lost loved ones .

The family of Elna Linder who passed away on February 24, 2017

The family of Shirley Erickson who passed away on March 9, 2017

The family of Edna Corser who passed away on March 14, 2017

We pray that you will find comfort in the promises of God's Word and His assurance of eternal life for His children

*So teach us to number our days that we get a heart of wisdom.
Psalm 90:12*

But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one.
And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things that we command.
May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.
2 Thessalonians 3:3-5

We have been having lots of fun at Open Arms.

We have been enjoying the warm sunny days playing outside. Every time we go outside we look to the sky and thank our Lord for the beautiful day!

It has been perfect weather for being very artistic with colorful chalk on the driveway. We have also played with bubbles and enjoyed singing on the swing.

We were so blessed to receive two lovely notes this past month. We would like to share them with everyone. We are excited to have some fun new pen pals! Thank you for thinking of us Orien, Shirley and Sheryl. We loved getting mail from you! Thank you for your generous gift Orien. We really appreciate it so much!

We are still working on projects and lessons about Jesus and this very special time of year.

Lunch time prayers are growing daily. Lately we have had prayers for far away friends and relatives. There are always prayers of thanksgiving for all He blesses us with. Little Evelyn always thanks the Lord for sending us the Holy Spirit.

We have been having a few technical difficulties with the TV when trying to watch a DVD. Ethan reminded everyone one day to ask God for help with it and now it is working again. I just love it when they remember to ask the Lord for their needs. It is so exciting when the children see how the Lord provides for us. We just need to remember to ask Him.

Our new songs are "This Day" and "The Bible." Our most popular song this past month has been sung by two year old Cora. She just learned "Silent Night" at home from her mom. She sings it nearly everyday here. We love music here and learning a new song is always fun.

We are very happy that we will have a cute new baby joining us next month. We still have openings for children three and up. If you know of anyone looking for fun Christian childcare for their children please let them know about Open Arms.

Thank you all for your prayers and support. We are so thankful for all of you at Christ Lutheran!

With God's power working in us, God can do much, much more than we can ask or imagine!

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 3:20

Happy Easter!

Blessings,

Mary Jo

*To Daycare,
Receiving a message of love and happiness from Open Arms Day-care has been a real joyful event. I know that God loves each and every one of you for your kind thoughts and good wishes for others, so I thank you with all my heart.*

April Mission of the Month:

American Association of Lutheran Churches

Is the Lutheran Church relevant in the 21st Century?

The AALC believes that God is relevant to our world today and His Word never changes as 1 Peter 1:25 says: "the Word of the Lord stands forever." The AALC believes that Jesus is the only way of salvation, as Jesus Himself said in John 14:6, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

It is the goal of the AALC to confess Christ in this unstable world. With this goal in mind, the AALC formed to encourage and equip churches to carry out mission and ministry in their location, to help churches and pastors communicate the changeless Gospel to an ever-changing culture, and to train Lutheran Pastors (strengthen pastors to strengthen congregations).

The AALC is distinctively Lutheran in its core beliefs. Every church and pastor that voluntarily joins the AALC confesses that they believe the words of Scripture to be the inspired Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice and affirms without reservation the doctrines explained in the Book of Concord.

Today the AALC continues with great pleasure in the conservative ALC tradition to offer a viable alternative to Lutheran congregations across America who find themselves unable to feel comfortable in either of the larger Lutheran church bodies.

The AALC is our supporting organization and we need to help spread the Good Word by our continuing financial support. Please consider making a donation to the AALC throughout the month of February.

You may make checks payable to Christ Lutheran Church. Thank you for your continued support in our mission "To know Christ and to make Him known."

The children of Elna B. Linder are forever indebted to the generosity, care and faithful compassion the members of Christ Lutheran Church provided mom and grandma for all the years she was a member of this community.

In the last months and weeks of Elna's long fulfilled life, we know your visits, calls, thoughts, and most certainly prayers were greatly appreciated by her and us.

God's blessings for each of you.

The families of Linda Linder-Gelo & Lee Linder

Thank you all for helping our mom on her day. Everything was beautiful. Mom was our hero and now she's a beautiful angel with dad, family, and all her friends.

The kind words meant so much to us. Mom's at peace now.

Thank you all.

Ilene & Carol Corser

Olivia Schadel is the lady I spoke about in church on April 2. If anyone could visit her or send her a card to cheer her up it would be a blessing to her. She is a very pleasant lady. If you visit, no gifts please.

Olivia's address is:

4495 Westberg Road
Memory Care Building Unit A
Duluth MN 55811

Thank you,
