The Good Word

Advent means "coming" or "arrival." The focus of the entire season is the celebration of the birth of Jesus the Messiah in His First Advent, and the anticipation of the return of Jesus Christ the King in His Second Advent. Advent is far more than marking a 2,000-year-old event in history. It is celebrating the truth about God, the revelation of God in Jesus Christ whereby all of creation may be reconciled to God. That is the work of God in which we now participate, and the consummation of which we anticipate. Scripture readings for Advent will reflect this emphasis on the Second Advent, including themes of accountability for faithfulness at His coming, judgment of sin, and the hope of eternal life.

In this double focus on the past and future, Advent is a vehicle transporting Christians and their congregations on a spiritual journey, to affirm that Jesus Christ has come, that He is present in the world today, and that He will come again in glory and power. This provides a basis for holy living arising from a profound sense that we live "between the times" and are called to be faithful stewards of what is entrusted to us as God's people. Therefore, the church celebrates God's coming to us in the Incarnation and anticipates a future consummation for which "all creation is groaning awaiting its redemption." We confess our own responsibility as a people commissioned to "love the Lord our God with all our hearts" and to "love our neighbor as ourselves."

Advent is marked by expectation, anticipation, preparation, and longing. There is a yearning for deliverance from the evils of the world. We hear the yearning expressed by Israelite slaves in Egypt as they cried out from their bitter oppression. It was the cry of the two kingdoms of Israel and Judah, who have experienced being exiled from their homelands, and yet have hope of deliverance brought to them by a God who is faithful to His promises of restoration and blessing!

It is that hope which brings to the world the anticipation of a King who will rule with truth and justice and righteousness over His people and His creation. It is the hope that once anticipated, and now anticipates, the reign of the Anointed One, the Messiah, King Jesus, who will bring peace, justice, and righteousness to the world.

Read Jeremiah 33:14-16. The "Good Word" Jeremiah announced comprised the entire panorama of glorious promises made to both Judah and Israel. What is spoken of is the restoration and abundant blessing of God's people. Jeremiah's picture of the coming Messiah consists of many scenes and is very unique. How many of you have ever been to an IMAX theater? I am sure it was an amazing experience. I've been to several and I have always been thrilled. Imagine the prophecies of Jeremiah coming to you on an IMAX theater screen!

Imagine, if you would, Jeremiah's panoramic picture of the coming Messiah. Jeremiah projects the Messiah as the Spring of Living Water; the Good Shepherd; a Righteous Branch; the Redeemer; the Lord is our Righteousness; David their King; and the agent of the New Covenant. We see that the holy city Jerusalem is given the same name as the Messiah, "the Lord is our Righteousness" because Jerusalem reflects the righteousness the Messiah bestows upon her.

These promises find their fulfillment in Jesus, the Incarnate Word, the true son of David, as Ephesians 1:3 says, in whom we are "blessed . . . with every spiritual blessing."

Acts 3:14 proclaims that He is “the Holy and Righteous One.” Jesus is the Lord who clothes us with his righteousness, for Isaiah 61:10 says, “I will rejoice greatly in the LORD, My soul will exult in my God; For He has clothed me with garments of salvation, He has wrapped me with a robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.”

The rule and reign of God comes to us in time; He comes to us in the world He created. The Righteous Branch, the anointed One of God, comes to us in the form of a human being. What we are witnessing is not only the hope of all Israel, but our Christian expectation that Advent brings as well, our soon coming King!

But wait, there’s more! Advent is the season of hope and expectation. The expectation of the celebration of the birth of Jesus, the Messiah, and the hope of the glorious imminent return of our Savior.

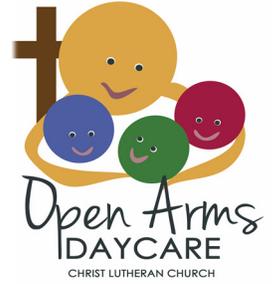

Jesus comes to us now, today. He comes to us in the Absolution. He comes to us in His Word. He comes to us in the Gospel. He comes to us in His Holy Supper. Jesus gives us His Body and Blood, in, with, and under the bread and wine. Given for you. Shed for you. For the forgiveness of sins.

What we see in Jeremiah 33:14-16 is the consolation that God will certainly fulfill His promises, even if it may often appear that nothing will come of them; for God is Truth and what He promises must happen and shall never fail. Therefore, no one can say, “God has rejected these two kingdoms, He does not want Israel and Judah; He does not want Moses and Aaron; He does not want the priesthood and Kingdom.” That is not what God told Jeremiah. No, this is not so. In fact, this view is derisive toward God and moves people toward mistrust and unbelief. When one doubts God’s promise and Word, then one should hold ever more tightly to God, His covenant., Word and promise. He is the eternal, omnipotent, and true God, even if His ways and amazing works sometimes appear strange. He does fulfill His promise even in the midst of things that appear contrary. God’s works are beyond our human wisdom, reason, and thought. God gives us His Holy Spirit that we may hold fast to His promise and Word, in doctrine, life, cross, and death.

He comes to you today with the forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation. Receive Him. Oh, come let us adore Him! Jesus Christ, the Lord!

Advent blessings,
Pastor Gary

Everyday is a blessing at Open Arms!

Happy December!

We are all so excited to be celebrating the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!
2 Corinthians 9:15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift.

The Lord is so good to us. We are blessed in so many ways. We are being blessed each week at daycare with visits from Pastor Gary on Tuesdays. He has been rocking out with us by teaching us how to play the drums and we are loving it! Thank you so much Pastor for the drums and maracas you have given to us. We love making a joyful noise everyday. Thank you Sue for your special story times on Wednesdays. We love it when you read to us and teach us about Jesus. You are both a big blessing to us. We appreciate your kindness so much.

Thank you also to Lynn Erickson for her nice visit and for taking the time to reading to the kids, that was so thoughtful.

We will be singing Christmas songs this month like “Silent Night”, “Away in a Manger” and “Wonderful Christmastime”. Our plan is to invite the parents to a little Christmas get together for cookies, cocoa and music. Samuel is learning so quickly to play the drums from Pastor Gary he might even do a drum solo for the parents!

Cute things the kids are saying ...

When Cora says lunchtime prayers she thanks God for his “Royal love for us.” Addy thanks God for all the mommy’s and daddy’s everywhere.

I heard Joshua singing Lauren Daigle’s song “Rescue” while he was washing his hands one day. He said the words were just in his head.

Little Hendrik has been humming “Twinkle Twinkle” at nap time.

We filled ten shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child. This year the kids asked questions like “Do the kids have a mom and dad? Can we send them their favorite foods too?” They were very thoughtful and compassionate in desiring to meet their needs.

Proverbs 11:25: A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.
It makes our hearts happy to be able to share with others.

If you know of someone who could use a little spark of joy we would like to treat them to a special gift.
Please contact Mary Jo at the daycare for more information. Thanks!

Please continue to pray that we will fill our openings for two preschool age children soon. Thank you!

Luke 1:37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

Many blessings to everyone for a wonderful Christmas filled with blessings from above!

Mary Jo
