"O, Come Let Us Adore Him"

Advent (and Christmas) is an excellent time of year to create family traditions and to cultivate a culture of worship with your children (or grandchildren). Family worship can be wonderfully informal. Try observing family worship after breakfast or before bedtime. Depending on the circumstances and attentiveness of the children, plan on anywhere from 10-20 minutes. Perhaps you might talk about each of the following teachings about the promise of the Messiah's arrival to the fulfillment of the promise at His birth.

From the prophecies recorded thousands of years before He came, to the incredible things that occurred when He arrived, Jesus' birth was surrounded by the astonishing. God used these amazing events to communicate that Jesus Christ was the promised Messiah who would be the Savior of the world.

1. God Promised Christ's Arrival Throughout History

The promise of the coming Savior appears like a thread running through the Old Testament, starting with a hint after the first recorded sin, when God promised the serpent (Satan) that Eve's offspring would crush him (Gen. 3:15). The next promise came to Abraham when God said He would bless all people through his line (Gen. 12:3). Abraham's great grandson, Judah, was promised that an eternal scepter would come from his lineage (Gen. 49:10). Thousands of years later, David, the son of Jesse, came from that line to rule Israel. Isaiah prophesied that from him would come the ultimate king (Isa. 11:1-5). Isaiah also foretold that a virgin would bear Jesus (Isa. 7:14) and of the miraculous works He would do (Isa. 35:5-6). The prophet Micah said Jesus would be born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2). Zechariah accurately described His humble circumstances and betrayal (Zech. 9:6; 11:12-13). Isaiah vividly foretold the torturous death Jesus would die and why (Isa. 53), and David told of Jesus' resurrection (Ps. 16:10).

2. God Became a Man

The most astounding message of the Nativity is that God became man. John tells us God became flesh and lived with us (John 1:14). Paul says, "God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in Him" (Col. 1:19). Rather than simply tell us what He was like, God came to us personally.

3. Angels Testified to Christ's Coming

The angel Gabriel appeared to Mary, not only to prepare her, a virgin, for bearing the Son of God, but to give her specific instructions concerning Him. Gabriel told her to name the baby Jesus (meaning "God saves"), that Jesus would be the Son of the Most High, that God would give Him David's throne, and that His kingdom would never end. An angel told Joseph that Jesus would be called Immanuel, which means "God with us." The angel who appeared to the shepherds told them of joyous news that was for all people, that a Savior had been born—Christ the Lord.

4. Witnesses Proclaimed Christ the Messiah

After Jesus was born, Mary and Joseph took Him to the temple. Simeon, who had been promised he wouldn't die before seeing the Lord's Christ, said, "My eyes have seen your salvation...a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel" (Luke 2:30-32). A prophetess, Anna, told everyone that Jesus was the child they had been looking for to redeem Jerusalem (Luke 2:38). Later the Magi followed a star, which they knew to mean that a king had been born. When they found Jesus, they worshiped him. Their gifts of gold, incense, and myrrh were fit for a king (Matt. 2).

So, what do we do during Advent? We wait and prepare ourselves. We commit ourselves to spiritual renewal through weekly Sunday worship, Advent Bible study, and daily prayer as the means of God's grace. We fast by giving up something we enjoy on a regular basis to deepen our hunger and desire for God. We give alms for those in need. We tell others about the joy and hope of Jesus' return to be king and put the world to rights. We pray the final prayer in the Bible, "Come, Lord Jesus!" (Revelation 22:20). Let's pray together:

"Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through Him who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen."

May God grant you and your families a very thoughtful Advent, and a very Merry Christmas!

In Christ's Love,

Pastor Gary DeSha

December Maintenance Report

Well, we've had a little practice shoveling snow already, the Farmers Almanac is right! Jay Peterson, our plow person has asked if we can help him out by allowing him to park his front end loader back in the holler next to the garage. We have checked with our insurance company and they requested that we have Jay provide us with a certificate of insurance naming us as an additional insured and also a waiver in case of theft or damage to his equipment while parked on our property. He is very thankful for allowing this as his business is homebased in Twig - quite the distance to bring equipment down when the weather is bad. He has also offered to give us a donation if he needs to plug in the engine heater when the temperature drops.

Our custodian, Gary, has been busy keeping everything cleaned up for us. He is now working on painting the men's bathroom ceiling. So thankful that he enjoys doing that type of work. Always willing to lend a hand where needed. We also replaced a flush valve in the men's bathroom. Good we have people that know how to do this so we do not have to pay for a plumber to come.

Pastor and Sue have picked out carpeting for their basement stairway. This will be installed on December 12. They also purchased a new shower head for their upstairs bathroom and installed it for us! Bless their hearts!

We always welcome your suggestions and appreciate volunteers! You can reach me at 218-390-8357 with any questions and/or concerns.

A blessed Christmas to all!

Maintenance Chair

The Word of God is Born!

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. John 1:1-5 ESV

A word and a prayer for you this December...

My head and heart are filled with so many words as I pour myself into my studies, and my fingers are busy with many things. So I share with you this brief and beautiful passage about the Son of God who is also the uncreated, but always creating Word of God. He is your life. Trust in Him to be your light that overcomes every darkness. He was born in flesh like us to show us the way home to our Heavenly Father.

Lead Us to Your Word

Heavenly Father, lead us daily to Your Word that we may find healing of spirit, soul and body. Be near to us as we celebrate our Savior born, died, and risen. We give thanks to You for seeking us, finding us, and saving us. Keep us in the faith no matter what we face, and help us share the hope and love we have received from Christ with others, some who have never heard and some who have heard but may have forgotten. Be born in us each day, in Jesus' name. Amen.
